

Hear Ye!! Hear Ye!!

Professor Paul H. Trattner

Professed artist of Legerdemain

pays his respectful compliments to the ladies and gentlemen of Maryland, and begs leave to inform them, that; he intends to exhibit his "Curious and Innocent Diversions for Parlour and Refined Gatherings."

He is presently available for presentations based on the magic effects of itinerate performers from 1750 through 1850.

Professor Trattner also makes presentations on the art of silhouette cutting and the science of Phrenology.

Professor P.H.Trattner

"Professor Trattner's wit and subtle style is enjoyed by adults as well as children."

"The closer you watch the less you see!!!"

"I never knew magic had such an historical presence."

"I couldn't believe my eyes. This must be real magic!!!"

Professor Trattner has amazed, amused, and astounded audiences throughout the colonies. Recently he has performed for the Maryland Historical Society, Fort McHenry, The Belair Mansion, Bowie Historical site, The Montpelier Mansion and several historical reenactment celebrations. Professor Trattner's presentations are filled with historical facts, antidotes, and plenty of audience participation.

Dundalk Eagle

Prof. Paul H. Trattner

2221 Clove Terrace • Baltimore, MD 21209

410-664-6240